Thanks. I will let you know when we get a verdict.

The defendant is "testifying" now – it is a hoot as you can imagine.

I will let you know when we have a verdict.

Don't forget to get me those boss names. J

Thanks,

Scott

Scott,

EPA is going to decline the option of joining the press release. Thanks, anyway.

Thanks for the opportunity, Scott, and good luck! I'm looking forward to hearing the end result.

On the mention of EPA in the press release, no thanks. Let's just keep this a state action to the extent possible.

Yesterday, Scott told me the State intended to issue a press release following the verdict. He asked if EPA would like to be mentioned as a cooperating agency (I assume). I told him I would speak with our attorneys and/or press people through you. I was the final witness yesterday, so they will be going into final statements soon, maybe today. Even if EPA elects to not participate in the press release, I really want to call out Gerald Dodo and the lab folks who did the original analysis, maintained custody of the samples for evidence, and did an extraordinary job conducting the after-hours, holiday weekend analyses that cemented the State's confidence in bringing and prosecuting the charges. Please give me some advice about how to proceed.
